

Index

- acromioclavicular joint
  - anatomy 166, 167, 182, 282
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - symptom localization 166
  - translatory tests 186
  - treatment 188
- activity, insufficient see immobilization
- adaptation, biological principle 10
- adhesion forces, in connective tissue 16, 49, 50
- adhesions
  - of neural structures 44
  - releasing 38, 39
- alar ligament
  - stability 194
  - testing 253–254
- allodynia 9
- ankle joint
  - anatomy 88
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - rotational tests 88–89
  - sample documentation 93–95
  - translatory tests 90
  - treatment 92
- arthritis, trial treatment 55, 62
- arthrokinematics 5, 13–16
- atlanto-occipital joints 247
- atlantoaxial joints 247
- atlas/axis, traction 259, 261
- atrophy, risk 46
- autonomic symptoms, caused by thoracic spine dysfunction 224

- biomechanics
  - of costal joints 238
  - definition 8
  - and pain physiology 8, 34
  - stress and strain 10
  - of temporomandibular joint 267
- biomedical model 7, 8–10
- biopsychosocial model 7, 42

- capsuloligamentous hypomobility, treatment 49–50
  - acromioclavicular joint 188
  - ankle joint 92
  - carpometacarpal joint 139
  - cervical spine 260
  - costovertebral joint 241–243
  - femorotibial joint 107
  - hip joint 116
  - humero-radial joint 162
  - humero-ulnar joint 162
  - intermetatarsal joints 79
  - interphalangeal joints 65–66, 121
  - lumbar spine 215
  - metacarpal joints II–V 133
  - metacarpophalangeal joints 127
  - metatarsophalangeal joints 72
  - patellofemoral joint 107
  - radioulnar joints 154–155
  - sacrococcygeal joint 205
  - sacroiliac joint 201
  - scapulo-serrato-thoracic gliding joint 188
  - shoulder joint 178
  - sternoclavicular joint 188
  - subtalar joint 85
  - tarsometatarsal joints 79
  - temporomandibular joints 272
  - thoracic spine 231–233
  - tibiofibular joint 98
  - tibiofibular syndesmosis 97
  - wrist joint 148
- carpometacarpal joint
  - anatomy 136, 281
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - rotational tests 137–138
  - sample documentation 140–142
  - translatory tests 138–139
  - treatment 139
- cartilage, damage 48–49
- cervical spine
  - anatomy 246–247
  - cervicobrachialgia 263–266
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - flexion 250
  - hypermobility 195
  - nerve mobility testing 247
  - rotational testing 254–258
  - safety tests 194
  - sample documentation 262
  - symptom localization 251–252
  - translatory tests 258
  - treatment 260
- cervicothoracic junction 195
- chiropractic, historical development 4
- chronic pain, development 35
- claw toe 68–69
- clinical flags 56
- clinical research 54
- close packed position 20
- cold, as first aid measure 34
- complex regional pain syndrome (CRPS) 39
- compression, use in treatment 43–44
- contraindications, to OMT or to a specific movement 25, 26, 55–57, 61, 194
- convex-concave rule, indirect examination method 15
- costal joints
  - anatomy 237
  - biomechanics 238
  - hypomobility 239
  - rotational tests 238–240
  - sample documentation 244–246
  - translatory tests 240–241
- costovertebral joint
  - anatomy 237, 282
  - compression 241
  - traction 240
  - treatment 241–243
- counternutation 199–201
- craniovertebral instability, testing 252
- craniovertebral junction 195
- Cyriax, James 4, 5

- descending inhibitory mechanisms 35, 36
- diffuse noxious inhibitory control (DNIC) 36
- direct examination method 15
- distal intermetacarpal syndesmosis, anatomic overview 280
- distal interphalangeal joint of the foot, anatomic overview 279
- distal radioulnar joint, anatomic overview 281
- dizziness 252, 253
- documentation
  - complete scheme 292–298
  - template for everyday use 301–305

- dynamic movement control 46
- dysfunction
  - assessing 61–62
  - identifying 25
  - treatment 37, 48
- elbow joint
  - anatomy 158
  - painfully limited motion 164–165
  - rotational tests 159–160
  - sample documentation 163–165
- end-feel 30–32
- end-range movements, avoidance 47
- ergonomics 63
- evidence-based medicine (EBM) 5, 21
- Evjenth, Olaf 5
- examination
  - classification of patient's condition 55–56
  - documentation 62
  - must not worsen symptoms 29
- extremity joints, sample documentation template 288–289
- facet joints
  - cervical spine 246, 259
  - lumbar spine 208
  - thoracic spine 224
  - traction and compression 215, 217, 231, 232–233
- femoral nerve, mobility testing 209
- femoropatellar joint
  - anatomic overview 280
  - examination and treatment overview 283
- femorotibial joint 102–110
  - anatomic overview 280
  - translatory tests 106–107
  - treatment 107
- fingers
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - interphalangeal joints 119–124
- folk medicine 4
- foot
  - anatomic overview 279
  - arches 90
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - interphalangeal joints 283
  - metatarsophalangeal joints 69–75
  - pronation and supination 75
  - varus/valgus 83
- forearm joints 151–158
- functional exercises 46
- gait analysis 197
- gate control system 35–36
- glenohumeral joint 166, 167, 173
  - anatomic overview 281
  - examination and treatment overview 284
- gliding 14–15
  - dosage and duration 50–52
  - three-dimensional 53
  - use to treat movement restrictions 43–44
- hallux valgus 74–75
- hand
  - anatomic overview 280
  - interphalangeal joints 280
  - metacarpal joints II–V 130–136
  - metacarpophalangeal joints 124–130
- herniated disk, symptoms 194
- hindfoot, functional unit 90
- hip joint
  - anatomy 111, 280
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - rotational tests 111–115
  - sample documentation 117–119
  - specific active and passive movement testing 113
  - symptom localization 166
  - translatory testing 116
  - treatment 116
- history of medicine 3–4
- humeroradial joint
  - anatomical resting position 162
  - anatomy 158, 281
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - translatory tests 161–162
  - treatment 162
- humeroulnar joint
  - anatomy 158, 281
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - translatory tests 161
  - treatment 162
- humerus, active movements 166
- hyperalgesia 9
- hyperpathia 9
- hypersensitivity, of the neural system 44
- hyperventilation 238
- hypomobility, treatment 47
- hypothetical/deductive examination 21
- immobilization
  - formerly widely used 4–5, 6
  - and joint stiffness 145
  - for metatarsal fracture 82–83
  - with a neck brace 264
- pathological joint changes 4, 10, 165
  - prolonged 48, 82, 87, 129, 130, 135
  - risks 10
  - temporary 33, 36, 43, 124, 195
- immune system activation 9
- inspiration
  - biomechanics 238
  - improving 241
  - painful 245–246
  - see also respiratory movements
- intercarpal joints
  - anatomic overview 281
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - hypermobility 145
  - translatory tests 145–148
- intermetacarpal joints
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - mobilization 133
- intermetatarsal joints 75–83
  - anatomy 75, 279
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - mobilization 79
  - rotational tests 76–77
  - sample documentation 80–83
  - translatory tests 78
  - treatment 79
- internal carotid artery, testing 252–253
- International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) 7, 42
- International Federation of Orthopedic Manipulative Physical Therapists (IFOMPT) 5, 6
- International Statistical Classification of Diseases and Related Health Problems (ICD) 7
- interphalangeal joints
  - anatomy 64, 119, 279, 280
  - examination and treatment overview overview 283
  - rotational tests 64–65, 119–120
  - sample documentation 67–69, 122–124
  - translatory tests 65–66, 121
  - treatment 65–66, 121
  - see also feet; hands; toes
- intertarsal joints
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - translatory tests 90–92
- intervertebral disk, herniated 194
- intervertebral disk connection
  - cervical spine 246
  - lumbar spine 208

- thoracic spine 224
traction and compression 213–214, 229–230, 258
- intervertebral joints, anatomic overview 282
- joint of head of rib, anatomy 237, 282
- joints
anatomy 16–20
axes and orientation planes of movements 18–19
comparison 29–30
intra- and extra-articular problems 20 limitations of movements 20 mechanics, in manual therapy 11 movement, see also range of motion play 15–16 positions 19–20
stabilization 45–47
surface shape and movement axes 17–18 treatment of dysfunction 48–53 treatment of limitations 43–44 treatment using translatory movements 55–57 types 17–18
- Kaltenborn, Freddy 4–5
- kinematics 11
- knee, arthroscopy 109–110
- knee joint 102–110
anatomy 102
rotational tests 102–105
sample documentation 108–110
symptom localization 166
- lower extremity joints, anatomic overview 279–280
- lower leg
anatomy 95
joints 95–101
rotational tests 96
sample documentation 98–101
- lumbar spine
anatomy 208
examination and treatment overview 285
hypermobility 195, 210
pain 220–223
rotational tests 208–213
sample documentation 218–223
translatory tests 213–215
treatment 215
- lumbosacral junction 195
- Maitland, Geoffrey 4
- manipulations, passive vs. active 43
- manual therapy effects 38–41
therapeutic model 34–37
treatment models 41
- manual therapy see mainly orthopedic manual therapy (OMT)
- mechanical dysfunction classification 55–56
indication for physical therapy 56 of the spine 224
- median nerve, mobility testing 248
- Medical Exercise Therapy (MET) 5
- Mennell, James 4
- metacarpal joints II–V
anatomy 130
individual movements 132
movement limitation after immobilization 135–136
rotational tests 131–132
sample documentation 134–136
translatory tests 132–133
treatment 133
- metacarpophalangeal joints
anatomy 124, 280
examination and treatment overview 283
movement limitation after immobilization 129–130
rotational tests 125–126
sample documentation 128–130
translatory tests 127
treatment 127
- metatarsophalangeal joints
anatomy 69, 279
examination and treatment overview 283
rotational tests 70–71
sample documentation 73–75
translatory tests 72
treatment 72
- midcarpal joint, anatomic overview 281
- mobility increasing 43, 45
maintaining 45
reducing 45–47
- mobilization
biomechanical aspects 52–53
with lengthening of shortened tissue structures 38–39
passive vs. active 43
- motion segment, functional unit of the spinal column 208
- mouth open/close see temporomandibular joint
- movement testing
contraindications 194
rotational and translatory motions 28–29
- movements
active and passive 61 analysis 32–33
anatomical 11
contraindications 25, 26, 57, 61
core element of physical therapy 8 coupled/uncoupled 12
functional, combined 12
general and specific 11
insufficient see immobilization limitation/control/stabilization 39
passive vs. active 40
quality 30–32
restrictions after prolonged immobilization 48
- muscle stretching 38–39
- muscular limitations, treatment 44
- nervous system
effects of manual therapy 39
hypersensitivity 44
motion limitations 39
- neural limitations of treatment 44
- neural structures, adhesions 39, 44
- neurological compression
cervical spine 258
"red flag" 55, 56
symptoms 194, 214, 216, 232
thoracic spine 224, 232
- neuromuscular training, in active stabilization 46
- neurovegetative symptoms 38, 39, 224
- nocebo effects 36, 40
- nociceptors 9, 34
- Nordic system 5
- nutration/counternutation 199–201
- occiput/atlas, traction 259, 261
- orthopedic manual therapy (OMT)
in biopsychosocial model of disease 7, 41
definition 3, 5
examination
additional 27
orienting 26
specific 26
historical development 3–5
international development 5–6 research studies 54
systematic procedure 21
theoretical basis of clinical reasoning 11
- osteokinematics 11–13
- osteopathy, historical development 4
- overexamination, avoiding 27
- overloading, risks 10

- pacemaker, ectopic 9
- pain
  - acute vs. chronic 8, 9
  - biopsychosocial aspects 9
  - capsuloligamentous-induced 50
  - and dysfunction 10
  - mechanisms and consequences for treatment 9–10
  - neurogenic 9
  - peripheral vs. central mechanisms 9
  - physiology 8–10
  - as symptom 34
  - treatment 34–36
- pain management strategies 36
- pain relief
  - by compression 44
  - by general techniques 34, 40
  - by passive joint mobilization 38
  - by translatory traction 49
  - during examination 29
  - techniques available 42–43
  - traction and gliding 51, 53, 97, 261
- patellofemoral joint 102–110
  - translatory tests 106
  - treatment 107
- pathomechanical model 8
- patient
  - attitude to pain management 56
  - expectations 42, 56
  - information, instruction, and training 47
  - knowledge/perception/history 25, 26, 56, 61
- pattern recognition 22
- pes equinus, in a bed-ridden patient 94–95
- physical therapy
  - diagnoses based on movement and posture 8
  - diagnosis, not permanent 27
  - historical development 4–5
  - role of manual therapy 3
  - tissue treatments 47
- pisiform joint 142
- placebo/nocebo effects 36, 40
- posture, poor 10
- prognosis 27
- proprioceptive neuromuscular facilitation (PNF) 12
- proximal intermetacarpal joint, anatomic overview 280
- proximal interphalangeal joint, anatomic overview 279
- proximal radioulnar joint, anatomic overview 281
- psychological effects of manual therapy 40
- pubic symphysis
  - anatomy 196
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - rotational tests 197
  - sample documentation 202–203
- radial nerve, mobility testing 249
- radiocarpal joint, anatomic overview 281
- radioulnar joints
  - anatomy 151
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - rotational tests 152
  - sample documentation 156–158
  - translatory tests 153
  - treatment 154–155
- range of motion 29–30
  - classification 50
  - limited by neural structures 248
- respiratory movements, observation/palpation 239
- resting position 19–20
- rib joints
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - see also costal joints; joint of head of rib
- roll-gliding 48–49
- rolling 14
- rotation
  - angular motion 11
  - of joints 18–19
  - in movement testing 28–29
- rotational movement
  - examinations 61
  - standardized normal or average values 29
- rotational tests
  - ankle joint 88–89
  - carpometacarpal joint 137–138
  - cervical spine 247–258
  - costal joints 238–
  - elbow joint 159–160
  - hip joint 111–115
  - intermetatarsal joints 76–77
  - interphalangeal joints 64–65, 119–120
  - knee joint 102–105
  - lower leg 96
  - lumbar spine 208–213
  - metacarpal joints II–V 131–132
  - metacarpophalangeal joints 125–126
  - metatarsophalangeal joints 70–71
  - pubic symphysis 197
  - radioulnar joints 152
  - sacrococcygeal joint 204
- sacroiliac joint 198
- shoulder girdle region 167–170, 183–185
- shoulder joint 173–177
- subtalar joint 84
- tarsometatarsal joints 76–77
- temporomandibular joint 268
- thoracic spine 224–229
- wrist joint 143–144
- zero position 19
- sacrococcygeal joint
  - anatomy 204
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - rotational tests 204
  - sample documentation 206–207
  - treatment 205
- sacroiliac joint
  - anatomy 196, 282
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - hypermobility 201
  - pain 196–197, 203–204
  - rotational tests 198
  - sample documentation 202–203, 300
  - treatment 201
- safety tests
  - in examining cervical spine 252
  - spinal column 285
- scapulo-serrato-thoracic gliding space
  - anatomy 182, 282
  - examination 166, 167
  - translatory tests 187
  - treatment 188
- scapulothoracic joint, examination and treatment overview 284
- sciatic nerve
  - limited mobility 194
  - mobility testing 208–209
- sciatic pain, acute 220–221
- selective tension 32
- Sharp–Purser test 254
- shoulder girdle joints
  - anatomy 182
  - rotational tests 183–185
  - sample documentation 189–193
  - translatory tests 186–187
- shoulder girdle region
  - anatomy 166
  - rotational tests 167–170
  - sample documentation 171–172
  - symptom localization 166
- shoulder joint
  - anatomy 173
  - rotational tests 173–177
  - sample documentation 179–181

- translatory tests 177–178
- treatment 178
- shoulder pain
  - in abduction/elevation 172, 180–181
  - after fractured clavicle 191–193
  - end-range 190–191
- slump test 209
- spinal column see spine
- spine
  - anatomic overview 282
  - contraindications to movement testing 194
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - important tests 285
  - joints 194
  - mobility assessment 194–195
  - proximity of nervous system 194
  - quantity and quality of movement 195
  - safety tests 194, 252, 285
  - sample documentation 290–291
  - symptom localization 194–195
  - ventral and dorsal flexion 195
  - see also cervical spine; lumbar spine; thoracic spine
- springing test 231, 241
- stability test, ankle joint 89
- stabilization
  - active 46–47
  - passive 45–46
- stabilization exercises, static 46
- sternoclavicular joint
  - anatomy 182, 282
  - examination 166, 167
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - translatory tests 186–187
  - treatment 188
- sternocostal joints, anatomy 237, 282
- strain, definition 10
- stress
  - definition 10
  - tissue responses 10
- stretching, physical phenomena 52
- subacromial gliding space 166, 167
- subtalar joint
  - anatomy 83, 279
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - rotational tests 84
  - sample documentation 86–87
  - translatory tests 85
  - treatment 85
- symptom localization
  - acromioclavicular joint 166
  - cervical spine 251–252
  - general procedure 61–62, 166
  - hip joint 166
  - knee joint 166
  - shoulder 166
  - spine 194–195
- symptom relief 42–43
  - see also pain relief
- symptoms
  - assessing 56
  - effects of manual therapy 38
  - examination 25, 32
  - localizing see symptom localization
  - questions 25
- systematic examination
  - key questions 24
  - structure 22–23
- talocalcaneonavicular joint, anatomic overview 279
- talocrural joint, anatomic overview 279
- tarsometatarsal joints
  - anatomy 75, 279
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - rotational tests 76–77
  - sample documentation 80–83
  - translatory tests 78
  - treatment 79
- temporomandibular joint
  - anatomy 267, 282
  - biomechanics 267
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - pain 274–275
  - rotational tests 268
  - sample documentation 273, 299
  - translatory tests 272
  - treatment 272
- therapist, avoidance of excessive stress 63
- thoracic spine
  - anatomy 224
  - examination and treatment overview 285
  - hypomobility 233
  - kyphosis 233
  - neural compression 232
  - neural mobility testing 224–225, 238
  - neurovegetative disorders 224
  - pain 235–236
  - restricted mobility 195
  - and rib mobility 240
  - rotational tests 224–229
  - sample documentation 234–236
  - traction 231–232
  - translatory tests 229–231
  - treatment 231–233
- thoracolumbar junction 195
- thumb see carpometacarpal joint
- tibiofemoral joint, examination and treatment overview 283
- tibiofibular joint/syndesmosis
  - anatomy 95, 280
  - examination and treatment overview 283
  - hypermobility 92
  - stability 96
  - translatory tests 96–97
  - treatment 97, 98
- tissue tension 8
  - effects of manual therapy 38–39
- tissues, physical therapy treatments 47
- toes, interphalangeal joints 64–68, 283
- traction
  - facet joints 232–233
  - lumbar spine 215–217
  - in OMT 3
  - three-dimensional 53
  - use to treat movement restrictions 43–44
- training, active methods 46
- translation see translatory movements
- translatory movements
  - axes and orientations 18–19
  - examination 62
  - indications and contraindications 55–57
  - in movement testing 28–29
  - in OMT 12
  - in treatment of joint dysfunction 48–49
- translatory tests
  - acromioclavicular joint 186
  - ankle joint 90
  - carpometacarpal joint 138–139
  - cervical spine 258
  - costal joints 240–241
  - femorotibial joint 106–107
  - hip joint 116
  - humero-radial joint 161–162
  - humero-ulnar joint 161
  - intercarpal joints 145–148
  - intermetatarsal joints 78
  - interphalangeal joints 65–66, 121
  - lumbar spine 213–
  - metacarpal joints II–V 132–133
  - metacarpophalangeal joints 127
  - metatarsophalangeal joints 72
  - patellofemoral joint 106
  - radioulnar joints 153
  - scapulo-serrato-thoracic gliding space 187
  - shoulder girdle joints 186

- shoulder joint 177–178
- sternoclavicular joint 186–187
- subtalar joint 85
- tarsometatarsal joints 78
- temporomandibular joints 272
- thoracic spine 229–231
- tibiofibular joint 97
- tibiofibular syndesmosis 96–97
- wrist joint 145
- translatory traction, dosage and duration 50–52
- transverse ligament of the atlas 194
- testing 254
- treatment
  - categories 42–47
  - duration 52
  - goal, formulation/updating 42, 62
  - plan 62
- should not be painful 35
- techniques, specificity 40
- treatment plane 18, 19
  - definition 6
- trial treatment
  - choice 27
  - duration 55, 62, 63
  - in ergonomics 63
  - hypothesis testing 55, 62
- ulnar nerve, mobility testing 249
- upper extremity joints, anatomic overview 280–282
- vertebral artery, testing 252–253, 255
- vertebrobasilar insufficiency 252
- whiplash 254
- workplace design 63
- wound healing 34–35
- wrist joint
  - anatomy 142
  - examination and treatment overview 284
  - hypermobility 144, 145
  - impaired movement 150–151
  - rotational tests 143–144
  - sample documentation 149–151
  - translatory tests 145
  - treatment 148
- zero position, definition 19
- zygoapophyseal joints see facet joints